This letter responds to your representative's September 24, 1999 request for rulings under § 368(a)(1)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code on behalf of the above-captioned taxpayers. Additional information with respect to the proposed transaction was submitted in letters dated December 10, 1999 and January 12, 2000. The information submitted for consideration is summarized below.

Acquiring is organized under the laws of State X and registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the "1940 Act") as a non-diversified, closed-end management investment company. Acquiring has elected to be taxed as a regulated investment company ("RIC") under §§ 851-855 of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code"). Acquiring's investment objective is to provide shareholders with high income exempt from Federal income tax and State Y personal income taxes. Acquiring seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing primarily in a portfolio of long-term, investment grade municipal obligations issued by or on behalf of State Y, its political subdivisions, agencies and instrumentalities and by other qualifying issuers that pay interest which, in the opinion of bond counsel to the issuer, is exempt from Federal income tax and State Y personal income taxes. Acquiring currently has outstanding voting common stock and one series of voting preferred stock.

Target Fund was organized under the laws of State X and will elect to be taxed as a RIC under §§ 851-855 of the Code. Like Acquiring, Target Fund's investment objective is to provide shareholders with current income exempt from Federal income tax and State Y personal income taxes. Target Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing primarily in a portfolio of long-term, investment grade municipal obligations issued by or on behalf of State Y, its political subdivisions, agencies and instrumentalities and by other qualifying issuers that pay interest which, in the opinion of bond counsel to the issuer, is exempt from Federal income tax and State Y personal income taxes. Target Fund currently has outstanding voting common stock and one series of voting preferred stock.

Acquiring and Target Fund have entered into an agreement and plan of reorganization for what are represented to be valid business reasons. Pursuant to the agreement, the transaction consists of the following steps:

- (1) Target Fund will transfer all of its assets and liabilities to Acquiring in exchange for an equal value of newly issued Acquired common voting stock and non-qualified preferred stock.
- (2) Target Fund will distribute to their shareholders all of the Acquiring stock received in the transaction. Each Target Fund shareholder will receive shares of Acquiring on a pro rata basis.
- (3) Target Fund will liquidate and dissolve in accordance with the laws of State X, and terminate its registration under the 1940 Act.

The following representations have been made in connection with the proposed transaction:

- (a) The fair market value of the Acquiring stock received by Target Fund shareholders will be approximately equal to the fair market value of the Target Fund stock surrendered in the exchange.
- (c) Acquiring will acquire at least 90 percent of the fair market value of the net assets and at least 70 percent of the fair market value of the gross assets held by Target Fund immediately prior to the Reorganization. For purposes of this representation, amounts paid by Target Fund to dissenters, amounts used by Target Fund to pay its reorganization expenses, amounts paid by Target Fund to shareholders who receive cash or other property, and all redemptions and distributions (except for redemptions in the ordinary course of Target Fund's business as an closed-end investment company as required by § 22(e) of the 1940 Act pursuant to a demand of a shareholder and regular, normal dividends) made by Target Fund immediately preceding the transfer will be included as assets of Target Fund held immediately prior to the transaction.
- (d) Acquiring has no plan or intention to reacquire any of its stock issued in the transaction.

PLR-116162-990

(e) Acquiring has no plan or intention to sell or otherwise dispose of any of the assets of Target Fund acquired in the transaction, except for dispositions made in the ordinary course of business or transfers described in section 368(a)(2)(C) of the Code.

(f) Target Fund will distribute to its shareholders the stock of Acquiring received pursuant to the Plan of Reorganization.

(g) The liabilities of Target Fund assumed by Acquiring and any liabilities to which the transferred assets of Target Fund are subject were incurred by Target Fund in the ordinary course of its business.

(h) Following the Reorganization, Acquiring will continue the historic business of Target Fund or use a significant portion of Target Fund's historic business assets in the continuing business.

(i) Target Fund, Acquiring and the shareholders of Target Fund will pay their respective expenses, if any, incurred in connection with the Reorganization.

(j) There is no intercorporate indebtedness existing between Target Fund and Acquiring that was issued, acquired, or will be settled at a discount.

(k) Target Fund and Acquiring qualify as regulated investment companies as defined in section 368(a)(2)(F)(i) and (ii) of the Code.

(l) The fair market value of the assets of Target Fund transferred to Acquiring will equal or exceed the sum of the liabilities assumed by Acquiring.

(m) Acquiring does not own, directly or indirectly, nor has it owned during the past five years, directly or indirectly, any stock of Target Fund.

(n) Cash is being distributed to shareholders of Target Fund in lieu of fractional shares of Acquiring solely to save Acquiring the expense and inconvenience of issuing and transferring fractional shares, and such cash does not represent separately bargained for consideration in the Reorganization. The total cash consideration that will be paid in each transaction between Acquiring and Target Fund to the Target Fund shareholders instead of issuing fractional shares of Acquiring stock will not exceed one percent of the total consideration that will be issued in the transaction to Target Fund shareholders in exchange for their shares of Target Fund stock. The fractional share interests of each shareholder of Target Fund will be aggregated, and no Target shareholder will receive cash in an amount equal to or greater than the value of one full share of Acquiring stock.

(o) Target Fund is not under the jurisdiction of a court in a Title 11 or similar case within the meaning of section 368(a)(3)(A).

PLR-116162-990

(p) Target Fund and Acquiring have elected to be taxed as RICs under § 851, and for all of their taxable periods (including the last short taxable period ending on the date of Reorganization for Target Fund), have qualified for the special tax treatment afforded RICs under the Code. After the Reorganization, Acquiring intends to continue to so qualify.

(q) There is no plan or intention by Acquiring or any person related (as defined in § 1.368-1(e)(3)) to Acquiring to acquire any of the stock of Acquiring issued in the transaction either directly or through any transaction, agreement, or arrangement with any other person.

(r) During the five-year period ending on the date of the proposed transaction, Target Fund nor any person related to Target Fund (as defined in § 1.368-1(e)(3) of the Income Tax Regulations without regard to section 1.368-1(e)(3)(i)(A)) will have directly or through any transaction, agreement, or arrangement with any other person, (i) acquired stock of Target Fund with consideration other than shares of Acquiring or Target Fund, or (ii) made distributions with respect to Target Fund stock, except for (a) distributions described in §§ 852 and 4982 of the Code, and (b) additional distributions, to the extent such distributions do not exceed 50 percent of the value (without giving effect to such distributions) of the proprietary interest in Target Fund on the effective date of the proposed transaction.

(s) Prior to or in the transaction, neither Acquiring nor any person related to Acquiring (as defined in 1.368-1(e)(3)) will have acquired directly or through any transaction, agreement or arrangement with any other person, stock of Target Fund with consideration other than shares of Acquiring.

(t) Acquiring and Target Fund is incorporated under the laws of State X and is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("1940 Act") as non-diversified, leveraged closed-end investment companies. Non-Diversified within the meaning of the 1940 Act means that investment companies are not limited in the proportion of assets that they may invest in the securities of a single issuer. Acquiring and the Target Fund are, however, managed so as to meet the diversification requirements of § 851(b)(3) of the Code and qualify for tax treatment as RICs.

(u) There is no plan or intention for Acquiring (the issuing corporation as defined in § 1.368-1(b)), or any person related (as defined in § 1.368-1(e)(3)) to Acquiring, to acquire, during the five year period beginning on the date of the proposed transaction, with consideration other than Acquiring stock, Acquiring stock furnished in exchange for a proprietary interest in Target Fund in the proposed transaction, either directly or through any transaction, agreement, or arrangement with any other person, except for cash distributed to the Target Fund's common shareholders in lieu of fractional shares of Acquiring common stock.

(v) During the five year period ending on the date of the proposed transaction:

(i) neither Acquiring, nor any person related (as defined in § 1.368-1(e)(3)) to Acquiring, will have acquired Target Fund's stock with consideration other than Acquiring stock; (ii) Target Fund, nor any person related (as defined in § 1.368-1(e)(3) determined without regard to § 1.368-1(e)(3)(i)(A)) to Target Fund, will have acquired such Target Fund's stock with consideration other than Acquiring stock or Target Fund's stock; and (iii) no distributions will have been made with respect to Target Fund's stock (other than ordinary, normal, regular, dividend distributions made pursuant to target's historic dividend paying practice), either directly or through any transaction, agreement, or arrangement with any other person, except for a) cash paid to dissenters and b) distributions described in §§ 852 and 4982 of the Code, as required for Target Fund's tax treatment as a RIC.

(w) The aggregate value of the acquisitions, redemptions and distributions discussed in paragraphs (u) and (v), above, will not exceed 50 percent of the value (without giving effect to the acquisitions, redemptions and distributions) of the proprietary interest in Target Fund on the effective date of the proposed transaction.

(x) The Acquiring preferred stock received by Target Fund preferred stockholders will be substantially identical (as defined in Prop. Treas. Reg. § 1.356-7(b)(2), 65 Fed. Reg. 4203 (2000)) to the Target Fund preferred stock surrendered in exchange therefor.

(y) Target Fund represents that at the time of incorporation, there was no plan or intent to sell or otherwise dispose of its assets except in the ordinary course of business.

Based solely upon the information and representations set forth above, we hold as follows:

- (1) The acquisition by Acquiring of substantially all of the assets of Target Fund solely for Acquiring voting stock and the assumption by Acquiring of the liabilities of Target Fund, as described above, will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of § 368(a)(1)(C) of the Code. "Substantially all" means at least 90% of the fair market value of the net assets and at least 70% of the fair market value of the gross assets of Target Fund. Acquiring and Target Fund will each be "a party to a reorganization" within the meaning of § 368(b).
- (2) No gain or loss will be recognized by Target Fund upon the transfer of substantially all of its assets to Acquiring solely in exchange for Acquiring voting common stock (§ 361(a)).
- (3) No gain or loss will be recognized by Target Fund upon the distribution of such Acquiring stock to Target Fund shareholders (§ 361(c)).
- (4) Acquiring will not recognize any gain or loss on the receipt of the assets of

PLR-116162-990

Target Fund in exchange for voting shares of Acquiring (§1032(a)).

- (5) The basis of Target Fund assets in the hands of Acquiring will be the same as the basis of those assets in the hands of Target Fund immediately prior to the exchange (§362(b)).
- (6) The holding period of Target Fund assets in the hands of Acquiring will include the period during which such assets were held by Target Fund (§ 1223(2)).
- (7) The common and preferred shareholders of Target Fund will not recognize any gain or loss on their receipt of common and preferred stock of Acquiring (including fractional share interests to which they may be entitled) solely in exchange for their Target Fund shares, as described above (§ 354(a)(1)).
- (8) The basis of the Acquiring shares (including fractional share interests to which they may be entitled) received by Target Fund shareholders will be the same as the basis of the Target Fund shares surrendered in exchange therefor (§ 358(a)(1)).
- (9) The holding period of the Acquiring shares (including fractional share interests to which they may be entitled) received by Target Fund shareholders in exchange for their Target Fund shares will include the period during which the exchanged Target Fund shares were held, provided that the Target Fund shares are held as a capital asset in the hands of the Target Fund shareholders on the date of the exchange (§1223(1)).
- (10) The payment of cash to Target Fund shareholders in lieu of fractional shares of Acquiring will be treated as though the fractional shares were distributed as part of the Reorganization and then redeemed by Acquiring. The cash payment will be treated as a distribution in full payment for the fractional shares deemed redeemed under § 302(a), with the result that Target Fund shareholders will have short-term or long-term capital gain or loss to the extent that the cash distribution differs from the basis allocable to their fractional shares.
- (11) Pursuant to § 381(b) of the Code and § 1.381(a)-1 of the Income Tax Regulations, the tax year of Target Fund will end on the effective date of the transfer.
- (12) Acquiring will succeed to and take into account the items of Target Fund described in § 381(c) of the Code, subject to the provisions and limitations specified in §§ 381, 382, 383 and 384 of the Code and the regulations thereunder.
