Dear

This is in response to your request dated _____ for a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement in section 408(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code).

The following facts and representations have been submitted under penalty of perjury in support of the ruling requested:

Taxpayer A, age **, represents that she received a distribution from IRA X totaling Amount E. Taxpayer A asserts that her failure to accomplish a rollover within the 60-day period prescribed by section 408(d)(3) of the Code was due to a miscommunication or misunderstanding with Bank C which resulted in Amount F being placed into two non-IRA certificates of deposit (CDs). Taxpayer A asserts that Amount F has not been used for any other purpose.

On Date H Taxpayer A received a distribution of Amount E from IRA X maintained by Bank B with the intention of rolling over Amount F into another IRA investment that would yield a higher return with Bank C. On Date H, Taxpayer A went to Bank C and Amount F was deposited in error into two CDs due to a miscommunication with personnel of Bank C. Taxpayer A intended to execute an IRA rollover at that time and believed that she had done so. On Date J, seeking a higher return on her funds, Taxpayer A moved Amount F from Bank C to Credit Union D and purchased another one year CD.

Taxpayer A was under the impression that her funds had always remained in an IRA. Taxpayer A did not understand that the transaction on Date H did not constitute a valid rollover and she was unaware of the error until Date K when she received a notice from the Internal Revenue Service requesting information concerning her tax return for Year L. Taxpayer A did not intend to remove any amount from her IRA, and Amount F has not been used in any way and remains in a CD with Credit Union D.

Based on the above facts and representations, you request that the Service waive the 60-day rollover requirement with respect to the distribution of Amount F.

Section 408(d)(1) of the Code provides that, except as otherwise provided in section 408(d), any amount paid or distributed out of an IRA shall be included in gross income by the payee or distributee, as the case may be, in the manner provided under section 72 of the Code.

Section 408(d)(3) of the Code defines, and provides the rules applicable to IRA rollovers.

Section 408(d)(3)(A) of the Code provides that section 408(d)(1) of the Code does not apply to any amount paid or distributed out of an IRA to the individual for whose benefit the IRA is maintained if: (i) the entire amount received (including money or any other property) is paid into an IRA for the benefit of such individual not later than the 60th day after the day on which the individual receives the payment or distribution; or (ii) the entire amount received (including money and any other property) is paid into an eligible retirement plan (other than an IRA) for the benefit of such individual not later than the 60th day after the date on which the payment or distribution is received, except that the maximum amount which may be paid into such plan may not exceed the portion of the amount received which is includible in gross income (determined without regard to section 408(d)(3)).

Section 408(d)(3)(B) of the Code provides that section 408(d)(3) does not apply to any amount described in section 408(d)(3)(A)(i) received by an individual from an IRA if at any time during the 1-year period ending on the day of such receipt such individual received any other amount described in section 408(d)(3)(A)(i) from an IRA which was not includible in gross income because of the application of section 408(d)(3).

Section 408(d)(3)(D) of the Code provides a similar 60-day rollover period for partial rollovers.

Section 408(d)(3)(E) of the Code provides that the rollover provisions of section 408(d) do not apply to any amount required to be distributed under section 408(a)(6).

Section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code provides that the Secretary of the Treasury may waive the 60-day requirement under sections 408(d)(3)(A) and (D) of the Code where the failure to waive such requirement would be against equity or good conscience, including casualty, disaster, or other events beyond the reasonable control of the individual subject to such requirement. Only distributions that occurred after December 31, 2001, are eligible for the waiver under section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code.

Revenue Procedure 2003-16, 2003-4 I.R.B. 359, provides that in determining whether to grant a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement pursuant to section 408(d)(3)(I), the Service will consider all relevant facts and circumstances, including: (1) errors committed by a financial institution; (2) inability to complete a rollover due to death, disability, hospitalization, incarceration, restrictions imposed by a foreign country or postal error; (3) the use of the amount distributed (for example, in the case of payment by check, whether the check was cashed); and (4) the time elapsed since the distribution occurred.

The information presented by Taxpayer A is consistent with her assertion that her failure to accomplish a rollover within the 60-day period prescribed by section 408(d)(3) of the Code was due to a miscommunication or misunderstanding with Bank C which resulted in Amount F being placed in non-IRA certificates of deposit. Further, the information presented indicates Taxpayer A's intent and her reasonable belief was that she had executed a valid rollover of Amount F on Date H.

Therefore, pursuant to section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code, the Service hereby waives the 60-day rollover requirement with respect to the distribution of Amount F. Taxpayer A is granted a period of 60 days from the issuance of this ruling letter to contribute Amount F into a rollover IRA. Provided all other requirements of section 408(d)(3) of the Code, except the 60-day rollover requirement, are met with respect to such contribution, Amount F will be considered a rollover contribution within the meaning of section 408(d)(3) of the Code.

This ruling does not authorize the rollover of amounts that are required to be distributed by section 401(a)(9) of the Code.

No opinion is expressed as to the tax treatment of the transaction described herein under the provisions of any other section of either the Code or regulations that may be applicable hereto.

This ruling is directed solely to the taxpayer who requested it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Code provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

If you have any questions regarding this ruling, you may contact

Sincerely yours,

Donzell Littlejohn, Manager
Employee Plans Technical Group 4
