Session

There is one session scheduled for the year 2001:

For Session Dates. . .

April 22 – May 19, 2001

The Nominations Are Due. . .

March 9, 2001

Session Location

The session will be conducted at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center (FLETC) in Glynco, Georgia.

Methodology

The course uses experiential methods concentrating on:

- Practical exercises
- Role plays

Materials

Students are provided with manuals, reference materials and case studies to use in the classroom and take home for future reference.

Participant Presentation

Each participant is expected to make a ten-minute presentation during the first week of the course. The presentation should focus on the criminal investigation or fraud responsibilities of the department and the most common types of cases encountered in the country.

Participant Evaluation

A written evaluation is prepared for the sponsoring agency.

---

About Our Instructors

The instructors are criminal investigators drawn from the Internal Revenue Service and other federal law enforcement agencies.

Session Fees

Separate checks are required for each fee:

IRS Training Fee — US $5,000

Made payable to the Internal Revenue Service

FLETC Recreation Association Fee — US $75

Made payable to the FLETC Recreation Association

Fee includes: meals, housing, materials, administrative costs, award luncheon, and opening reception.

Financial Data

Participants should bring a check or traveler checks to pay for the course. The costs are based on participants staying at a local hotel. If housing becomes available at the training facility, the fees will be reduced.

The fees may be paid by the participant, or a sponsoring agency or an international organization such as the United Nations or the United States Agency for International Development (USAID).
