Name(s) shown on tax return

Identifying number

In most cases, you do not need to file Form 2210-F. The IRS will figure any penalty you owe and send you a bill. File Form 2210-F only if one or both of the boxes in Part I apply to you. If you do not need to file Form 2210-F, you still may use it to figure your penalty. Enter the amount from line 19 on the penalty line of your return but do not attach Form 2210-F.

Part I Reasons for Filing—If 1a below applies to you, you may be able to lower or eliminate your penalty. But you must check that box and file Form 2210-F with your tax return. If 1b below applies to you, check that box and file Form 2210-F with your tax return.

- 1 Check whichever boxes apply (if neither applies, see the text above Part I and do not file Form 2210-F):
- a You request a waiver. In certain circumstances, the IRS will waive all or part of the penalty. See the instructions for Waiver of Penalty.
 - b Your required annual payment (line 14 below) is based on your 2000 tax and you filed or are filing a joint return for either 2000 or 2001 but not for both years.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.

Purpose of Form

If you are an individual or a fiduciary for an estate or trust and at least two-thirds of your 2000 or 2001 gross income is from farming or fishing, use Form 2210-F to see if you owe a penalty for underpaying your estimated tax.

For a definition of gross income from farming and fishing and more details, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

The IRS Will Figure the Penalty for You

In most cases, the IRS will figure the penalty for you. Complete your return as usual, leave the penalty line on your return blank, and do not attach Form 2210-F. If you owe the penalty, we will send you a bill. And as long as you file your return by April 15, 2002, we will not charge you interest on the penalty if you pay by the date specified on the bill.

Note: If you checked either of the boxes in Part I of the form, you must figure the penalty yourself and attach the completed form to your return.

Who Must Pay the Underpayment Penalty

You may owe the penalty for 2001 if you did not pay at least the smaller of (a) two-thirds of the tax shown on your 2001 return or (b) the tax shown on your 2000 return.

Note: In these instructions, "return" refers to your original income tax return. However, an amended return is considered the original return if it is filed by the due date (including extensions) of the original return. Also, a joint return that replaces previously filed separate returns is considered the original return.

Exceptions to the Penalty

You will not have to pay the penalty or file this form if any of the following applies.

1. You file your return and pay the tax due by March 1, 2002.
2. You had no tax liability for 2000, you were a U.S. citizen or resident for all of 2000, and your 2000 return was, or would have been had you been required to file, for a full 12 months.
3. The total tax shown on your 2001 return minus the amount of tax you paid through withholding is less than $1,000. To determine whether the total tax is less than $1,000, complete lines 2 through 12.

Waiver of Penalty

If you have an underpayment on line 16, all or part of the penalty for that underpayment will be waived if the IRS determines that:

1. The underpayment was due to a casualty, disaster, or other unusual circumstance, and it would be inequitable to impose the penalty or
2. In 2000 or 2001, you retired after age 62 or became disabled, and your underpayment was due to reasonable cause.

To request either of the above waivers, do the following:

- a. Check the box on line 1a.
- b. Complete Form 2210-F up to line 19 without regard to the waiver. Write the amount you want waived in parentheses on the dotted line to the left of line 19. Subtract this amount from the total penalty you figured without regard to the waiver and enter the result on line 19.
- c. Attach Form 2210-F and a statement to your return explaining the reasons you were unable to meet the estimated tax requirements.

d. If you are requesting a penalty waiver due to a casualty, disaster, or other unusual circumstance, attach documentation such as police and insurance company reports.

e. If you are requesting a penalty waiver due to retirement or disability, attach documentation that shows your retirement date (and your age on that date) or the date you became disabled.

The IRS will review the information you provide and will decide whether to grant your request for a waiver.

Specific Instructions

If you file an amended return by the due date of your original return, use the amounts shown on your amended return to figure your underpayment. If you file an amended return after the due date of your original return, use the amounts shown on the original return.

Exception. If you and your spouse file a joint return after the due date to replace previously filed separate returns, use the amounts shown on the joint return to figure your underpayment.

Line 3

Enter the total of the following amounts on line 3:

- Self-employment tax,
- Tax from recapture of investment, low-income housing, qualified electric vehicle, or Indian employment credits,
- Tax on early distributions from (a) an IRA or other qualified retirement plan, (b) an annuity, or (c) a modified endowment contract entered into after June 20, 1988,
- Tax on Coverdell education savings account distributions not used for qualified education expenses,
- Tax on Archer MSA distributions not used for qualified medical expenses,
- Section 72(m)(5) penalty tax,
- Tax on golden parachute payments,
- Advance EIC payments,
- Interest due under sections 453(l)(3) and 453A(c) on certain installment sales of property,
- Tax on income not effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business from Form 1040NR, lines 49 and 52,
- An increase or decrease in tax as a shareholder in a qualified electing fund,
- Tax on accumulation distribution of trusts,
- Tax on electing small business trusts included on Form 1041, Schedule G, line 7, and,

- Household employment taxes (before subtracting advance EIC payments made to your employee(s); also see the instructions for line 15). But do not include that amount if you do not have an amount on Form 2210-F, line 11, and the amount on Form 2210-F, line 9 (excluding household employment taxes), is less than $1,000. If so, do not file this form; you do not owe the penalty.

Line 11

Enter the taxes withheld from Form 1040, lines 59 and 62; Form 1040NR, lines 55, 57, 62, and 63; or Form 1041, line 24e.

Line 13

Figure your 2000 tax by using the taxes and credits from your 2000 tax return. Use the same taxes and credits as shown on lines 2, 3, 5, 6, and 7 of this form.

If you are filing a joint return for 2001 but you did not file a joint return for 2000, add the tax shown on your 2000 return to the tax shown on your spouse's 2000 return and enter the total on line 13 (figured as explained above). If you filed a joint return for 2000 but you are not filing a joint return for 2001, see Pub. 505 to figure your share of the 2000 tax to enter on line 13.

If you did not file a return for 2000 or if your 2000 tax year was less than 12 months, do not complete line 13. Instead, enter the amount from line 10 on line 14. However, see Exceptions to the Penalty on this page.

Line 15

If you are a household employer and made advance EIC payments, include those payments as of the date you paid the wages to your employee(s).

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to give us the information. We need it to ensure that you are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax.
