Instructions for Shareholder

A corporation in which you own stock that has had a change in control or a substantial change in capital structure must send you this statement by January 31 (February 28 if sent by your broker) of the year following the calendar year of the change. You have received this statement because the corporation has reasonably determined that you may be required to recognize gain from the receipt of cash, stock, or other property that was exchanged for the corporation's stock. Report any gain from the exchange on Schedule D (Form 1040), Capital Gains and Losses. However, if the box below Box 10 is checked, you cannot take a loss on your tax return. Do not report this loss on Schedule D (Form 1040).

Note: If you received this form from your broker, the broker may use this form to report all proceeds from this transaction. The broker is not required to also send you Form 1099-B, Proceeds From Broker and Barter Exchange Transactions, to report cash proceeds from this transaction. However, you may receive Form 1099-B from the broker for other transactions with this corporation.

Box 1. Shows the date the stock was exchanged for cash, stock, or other property.

Box 2. If filed by a broker, may show the CUSIP (Committee on Uniform Security Identification Procedures) number of the item reported.

Box 3. Shows the amount of any cash received in the exchange for the stock you held. The broker must indicate whether gross proceeds or gross proceeds less commissions and option premiums were reported to the IRS.

Box 4. If filed by a broker, shows backup withholding. Generally, a payer must backup withhold at a 30% rate if you did not furnish your taxpayer identification number to the payer. See Form W-9, Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification, for information on backup withholding. Include this amount on your income tax return as tax withheld.

Box 5. Shows the number of shares of the corporation's stock that you held which were exchanged in the transaction.

Box 7. Shows the class or classes of stock that were exchanged.

Box 8. Shows the fair market value (FMV) of any stock you received in exchange for the stock you held.

Box 9. Shows the FMV of any property (other than cash or stock) you received in exchange for the stock you held.

Box 10. If filed by a broker, shows the corporation's name and EIN (Employer Identification Number).

Instructions for Corporations

General and specific form instructions are provided as separate products. The products you should use for 2003 are the General Instructions for Forms 1099, 1098, 5498, and W-2G and the separate specific instructions for each information return you file. Specific information needed to complete this form is given in the 2003 Instructions for Form 1099-CAP. A chart in the general instructions gives a quick guide to which form must be filed to report a particular payment. To order these instructions and additional forms, call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

Caution: Because the IRS processes paper forms by machine (optical character recognition equipment), you cannot file with the IRS Forms 1096, 1098, 1099, or 5498 that you print from the IRS Web Site.

Due dates. Furnish Copy B of this form to the shareholder by February 2, 2004 (March 1, 2004, if filed by a broker).

File Copy A of this form with the IRS by March 1, 2004. If you file electronically, the due date is March 31, 2004.
