1	Enter amount of adjusted gross income you expect in 2003	1
2	If you plan to itemize deductions on Schedule A (Form 1040), enter the estimated total of your deductions. For 2003, you may have to reduce your itemized deductions if your income is over $139,500 ($69,750 if married filing separately). See Pub. 919 , How Do I Adjust My Tax Withholding? for details. Call 1-800-829-3676 or visit the IRS Web Site at www.irs.gov to order forms and publications. If you do not plan to itemize deductions, enter the standard deduction (see the instructions on page 2 for the standard deduction amount, including additional amounts for age and blindness)	2
3	Subtract line 2 from line 1	3
4	Exemptions. Multiply $3,050 by the number of personal exemptions. For 2003, your personal exemption(s) amount is reduced if your income is over $139,500 if single, $209,250 if married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er), $104,625 if married filing separately, or $174,400 if head of household. See Pub. 919 for details.	4
5	Subtract line 4 from line 3	5
6	Tax. Figure your tax on line 5 by using the 2003 Tax Rate Schedule X, Y, or Z on page 2. Do not use the Tax Table or Tax Rate Schedule X, Y, or Z in the 2002 Form 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ instructions	6
7	Credits (child tax and higher education credits, credit for child and dependent care expenses, etc.)	7
8	Subtract line 7 from line 6	8
9	Estimated income tax withheld and to be withheld from other sources (including amounts withheld due to a prior Form W-4S) during 2003 or paid with Form 1040-ES.	9
10	Subtract line 9 from line 8	10
11	Enter the number of sick pay payments you expect to receive this year to which this Form W-4S will apply	11
12	Divide line 10 by line 11. Round to the nearest dollar. This is the amount that should be withheld from each sick pay payment. Be sure it meets the requirements for the amount that should be withheld, as explained under Amount to be withheld below. If it does, enter this amount on Form W-4S above	12

General Instructions

Purpose of form. Give this form to the third-party payer of your sick pay, such as an insurance company, if you want Federal income tax withheld from the payments. You are not required to have Federal income tax withheld from sick pay paid by a third party. However, if you choose to request such withholding, Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(o) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide the information requested on this form. Do not use this form if your employer (or its agent) makes the payments because employers are already required to withhold income tax from sick pay.

Note: If you receive sick pay under a collective bargaining agreement, see your union representative or employer.

Definition. Sick pay is a payment you receive:

- Under a plan your employer takes part in and
- In place of wages for any period when you are temporarily absent from work because of sickness or injury.

Amount to be withheld. Enter on this form the amount you want withheld from each payment. The amount you enter:

- Must be in whole dollars (for example, $35, not $34.50).
- Must be at least $20 a week.
- Must not reduce the net amount of each sick pay payment you receive to less than $10.

For payments larger or smaller than a regular full payment of sick pay, the amount withheld will be in the same proportion as your regular withholding from sick pay. For example, if your regular full payment of $100 a week normally has $25 (25%) withheld, then $20 (25%) will be withheld from a partial payment of $80.

Caution: Generally, you may be subject to a penalty if your tax payments during the year are not at least 90% of the tax shown on your tax return. For exceptions and more details, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax. You may pay tax during the year through withholding or estimated tax payments or both. To avoid a penalty, make sure you have enough tax withheld or file Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. You may estimate your income tax liability by using the worksheet above.

Sign this form. Form W-4S is not valid unless you sign it.

Statement of income tax withheld. After the end of the year, you will receive a Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, reporting the taxable sick pay paid and income tax withheld during the year. These amounts are reported to the Internal Revenue Service.

Changing your withholding. Form W-4S remains in effect until you change or revoke it. You may do this by giving a new Form W-4S or a written notice to the payer of your sick pay. To revoke your previous Form W-4S, complete a new Form W-4S and write "Revoked" in the money amount box, sign it, and give it to the payer.

Specific Instructions for Worksheet

You may use the worksheet on page 1 to estimate the amount of income tax you want withheld from each sick pay payment. Use your tax return for last year and the worksheet as a basis for estimating your tax, tax credits, and withholding for this year.

You may not want to use Form W-4S if you already have your total tax covered by estimated tax payments or other withholding.

If you expect to file a joint return, be sure to include the income, deductions, credits, and payments of both yourself and your spouse in figuring the amount you want withheld.

Caution: If any of the amounts on the worksheet change after you give Form W-4S to the payer, you may use a new Form W-4S to request a change in the amount withheld.

Line 2—Deductions

Itemized deductions. You may have to reduce your itemized deductions if your income is over $139,500 ($69,750 if married filing separately). See Pub. 919 for details.

Standard deduction, individuals (other than the elderly or blind). For 2003, the amounts are:

Filing Status	Standard Deduction
Married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er)	$7,950*
Head of household	$7,000*
Single	$4,750*
Married filing separately	$3,975*

*If you are age 65 or older or blind, add to this amount the additional amount that applies to you as shown in the next paragraph. If you can be claimed as a dependent on another person's return, see Limited standard deduction for dependents below.

Additional amount for the elderly or blind. An additional standard deduction of $950 is allowed for a married individual (filing jointly or separately) or qualifying widow(er) who is 65 or older or blind, $1,900 if 65 or older and blind. If both spouses are 65 or older or blind, an additional $1,900 is allowed on a joint return ($1,900 on a separate return if you can claim an exemption for your spouse). If both spouses are 65 or older and blind, an additional $3,800 is allowed on a joint return ($3,800 on a separate return if you can claim an exemption for your spouse). An additional $1,150 is allowed for an unmarried individual (single or head of household) who is 65 or older or blind, $2,300 if 65 or older and blind.

Limited standard deduction for dependents. If you can be claimed as a dependent on another person's return, your standard deduction is the greater of: (a) $750 or (b) your earned income plus $250 (up to the regular standard deduction for your filing status). If you are 65 or older or blind, see Pub. 505 for additional amounts you may claim.

Certain individuals not eligible for standard deduction. For the following individuals, the standard deduction is zero:

- A married individual filing a separate return if either spouse itemizes deductions.
- A nonresident alien individual.
- An individual filing a return for a period of less than 12 months because of a change in his or her annual accounting period.

Line 7—Credits

Include on this line any tax credits you are entitled to claim, such as the child tax and higher education credits, credit for child and dependent care expenses, earned income credit, or credit for the elderly or the disabled.

Line 9—Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax

Enter the income tax you expect will be withheld this year on income other than sick pay and any payments you made using Form 1040-ES. Include income tax withheld from wages and pensions.
