Name of Plan

I. Distributions Before Death

a. Does the plan require that distributions to participants who are 5-percent owners commence not later than the April 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the participant attains age 70½? [0902]

b. Does the plan require that distributions to participants who are not 5-percent owners commence by the April 1 of the calendar year following (plan must provide for one of the following options): [0903, 0904]

(i) the calendar year in which the participant attains age 70½ or

(ii) the later of the calendar year in which the participant attains age 70½ or retires, except that benefits accrued as of the later of the adoption or effective date of the amendment to the plan that implements the changes to the required beginning date of this paragraph must commence by the April 1 following the calendar year in which the participant attains age 70½.

(iii) the later of the calendar year in which the participant attains age 70½ or retires?

c. If b.(iii) applies, does the plan give any participant (other than a 5-percent owner) who attains age 70½ after 1995 the option of commencing distributions by April 1 following age 70½ or deferring distributions until April 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the participant retires? [0905, 0906]

(Note: The plan with a required beginning date under b.(iii) above must also include plan language under c unless it already contains an amendment pursuant to section 1.411(d)-4, Q&A-10(b) of the regulations, or it does not eliminate an age 70½ distribution option, as described in section 1.411(d)-4 because one or more of the following applies: it is a new plan, or already offers a pre-retirement distribution option at least as generous as c.)

d. If the plan allowed a participant who attained age 70½ before 1997 to stop receiving distributions and recommence them at a later date, does the plan provide that there is either (i) a new annuity starting date or (ii) no new annuity starting date when distributions recommence? [0907]

e. If applicable, does the plan (if a defined benefit plan) require actuarial increases for a participant (other than a 5-percent owner) who retires in a calendar year after the calendar year in which the participant attains age 70½, for the period after age 70½ in which the participant was not receiving any benefits under the plan (see Explanation #2A)? [0908]

f. Will distribution of the participant’s entire interest be made in one of the following ways: in a lump sum, over the life of the participant, over the lives of a participant and a designated beneficiary, over a period certain not extending beyond the life expectancy of the participant, or over a period certain not extending beyond the joint life and last survivor expectancy of the participant and a designated beneficiary? [0909]
