(Under section 4975(e)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code)

▶ Attach to Form 5300.

1 Name of plan sponsor (employer if single-employer plan)

2 Employer identification number (EIN)

3 Plan number

All Plans (Complete lines 4a through 4j.)

Yes No

- 4a Is the plan designed as an employee stock ownership plan (ESOP) within the meaning of section 4975(e)(7)?
- b Is the plan designed to invest primarily in employer securities as defined in section 409(l)?
- c Is each participant or beneficiary entitled to direct the plan to vote the allocated securities as required by section 409(e)?
- d Does the plan provide that each participant who is entitled to a distribution from the plan has a right to demand that the benefit be distributed in the form of employer securities?

If the answer to d is "No," please answer the following.

- i If the charter or bylaws of the corporation restrict stock ownership to employees of the ESOP, does the plan provide that participants are entitled to receive distributions in cash? (See section 409(h)(2))
- ii If the plan is maintained by an S corporation, does the plan provide that participants are entitled to receive distributions in cash? (See section 409(h)(2))
- e If the trust makes a distribution in stock and the securities are not readily tradable on an established market, can the participant require the employer to repurchase the securities under a fair valuation formula within the time frames prescribed by law? (See section 409(h))
- f Does the plan provide that no portion of the assets attributable to employer securities in an S corporation may, during a nonallocation year, accrue to the benefit of a disqualified person? (See section 409(p))
- g Does the plan provide that a participant may elect to diversify a portion of his or her account investment in employer securities, as required by section 401(a)(28)(B)?
- h With respect to activities that are carried on by the plan, are all valuations of employer securities acquired after December 31, 1986, which are not readily tradable on an established securities market made by an independent appraiser? (See section 401(a)(28)(C)) i Does the plan provide that a participant may begin receiving a distribution of his or her account that is attributable to employer securities acquired after December 31, 1986, (within the guidelines of section 409(o)) after reaching normal retirement age, or after death, disability, or other separation from service?

Yes No

Note. If this plan is a leveraged ESOP, the plan is permitted to delay distribution until the loan is fully repaid.

j If the plan is applying under section 409(n) with respect to transactions under section 1042, does the plan provide that the assets of the plan attributable to employer securities acquired by the plan (in a sale to which section 1042 applies) cannot accrue for the benefit of the persons specified in section 409(n) during the nonallocation period?
Not applicable for S corporation.

Plans Applying Under Section 4975(d)(3) and Regulations Section 54.4975-7 (Leveraged ESOPs) (Complete lines 5a through 5g.)

5a Does the plan provide that the exempt loan proceeds must be used within a reasonable time to acquire qualifying employer securities, repay such loan, or repay a prior loan as required under Regulations section 54.4975-7(b)(4)?

b Does the plan provide for the establishment and maintenance of a suspense account as required under Regulations section 54.4975-11(c)?

c Does the plan provide that the collateral must be limited to qualifying employer securities purchased with such exempt loan or a prior exempt loan as required under Regulations section 54.4975-7(b)(5)?

d Does the plan provide that no person entitled to payment under an exempt loan shall have any right to assets of the ESOP other than collateral given for such loan, contributions (other than contributions of employer securities) made to repay such exempt loan, and earnings attributable to such collateral and the investment of such contributions as required under Regulations section 54.4975-7(b)(5)?

e Does the plan provide that payments made with respect to an exempt loan by the ESOP during the year must not exceed an amount equal to the sum of contributions and earnings received during or prior to such year less such payments in prior years as required under Regulations section 54.4975-7(b)(5)?

f Do plan terms provide that qualifying employer securities will be forfeited only after other assets as required under Regulations section 54.4975-11(d)(4)?

g Are the participants' rights to plan assets acquired by use of the exempt loan protected as specified in Regulations section 54.4975-11(a)(3)(i) and (ii)?

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have examined this application, including accompanying statements and schedules, and to the best of my knowledge and belief, it is true, correct, and complete.

General Information

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Use this form to apply for a determination letter for an employee stock ownership plan (ESOP) that meets the requirements of section 4975(e)(7). Attach Form 5309 to Form 5300, Application for Determination for Employee Benefit Plan.

The plan you establish must be designed to invest primarily in employer securities. For a definition of employer securities and how it applies to your plan, see section 409(l) or section 4975(e)(8). Also see Regulations section 54.4975-11 for the formal plan requirements of an ESOP.

General Instructions

A Change To Note

The form and the instructions have undergone revisions in the format and the information required.

The questions with regard to tax credit ESOPs have been deleted. If your plan involves such a plan, please state so in the cover letter and refer to Regulations section 1.46-8(d) for the formal requirements of a tax credit ESOP. The question relating to type of plan has been deleted from the form.

Who May File

1. Any corporate employer who has established an ESOP intended to meet the requirements under section 4975(e)(7).

2. Any corporate employer who amends an ESOP under section 4975(e)(7).

An S corporation-sponsored ESOP must provide that no prohibited allocation of employer stock may be made to a disqualified person for a nonallocation year. This applies to all plan years beginning on or after January 1, 2005. This applies to plan years ending after March 14, 2001, if:

1. The ESOP was established after March 14, 2001, or

2. The ESOP was established on or before March 14, 2001, if the employer maintaining the ESOP had not made an S-corporation election in effect on such date.

How To Complete the Application

- If a number is requested, a number must be entered.
- If an item provides a box to check, written responses are not acceptable.
- The application has formatted fields that will limit the number of characters entered per field.
- All data input will need to be entered in Courier 10 point font.
- Alpha characters should be entered in all capital letters.
