Purpose of Form

Form 8894 is used only by small partnerships revoking a prior election to be governed by the unified audit and litigation procedures as set forth in section 6231(a)(1)(B)(ii). A "small partnership" is defined as any partnership having 10 or fewer partners each of whom is an individual (other than a nonresident alien), a C corporation, or an estate of a deceased partner. For this purpose, a husband and wife (and their estates) are treated as one partner.

Note. If the partnership does not qualify as a small partnership for the tax year shown (after a revocation of the prior election), a revocation cannot be made and will not be accepted.

Where To File

Form 8894 must be sent to the address below.

Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service Center
Ogden, UT 84201

The form must be filed at the address listed above by the due date (including extensions) of the partnership return for the tax year shown. Notification will be sent as to the acceptance or denial of the request for revocation.

Who Must Sign

Each partner who holds or held an interest in the partnership during the tax year for which the revocation is filed must sign the form. This includes all partners during the year, not just those who were partners at the end of the tax year. This will be deemed to have occurred if all partners listed on the Schedules K-1 of the Form 1065 filed for the revocation year, sign the request.

A husband and wife are generally considered as one partner, and should both sign the election. One spouse may sign for the other if acting under a power of attorney, which, if not previously filed, must accompany this form. Corporate partners should name the corporation, with the signature of the appropriate corporate officer. Attach a continuation sheet if more signature space is needed.
