General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Use Form W-7 to apply for an IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). An ITIN is a nine-digit number issued by the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (IRS) to individuals who are required to have a U.S. taxpayer identification number but who do not have, and are not eligible to obtain, a social security number (SSN).

ITINs are intended for tax use only. For example, the numbers will create no inference regarding the immigration status of a foreign person or the right of that person to be legally employed in the United States.

Who Must File

Any individual who is not eligible to obtain an SSN and whose taxpayer identification number is required to be furnished to the IRS must apply for an ITIN on Form W-7. For example:

- Nonresident alien individuals not eligible for an SSN who are required to file a U.S. tax return OR who are filing a U.S. tax return only to claim a refund.
- Nonresident alien individuals not eligible for an SSN who elect to file a joint U.S. tax return with a spouse who is a U.S. citizen or resident.
- U.S. resident aliens who file U.S. tax returns and who are not eligible for an SSN.
- Alien individuals claimed as dependents on U.S. tax returns and who are unable or not eligible to obtain an SSN.
- Alien individuals claimed as spouses for exemptions on U.S. tax returns and who are not eligible to obtain an SSN.

Who does not file Form W-7.— Do not file this form if you have an SSN or you are eligible to obtain an SSN. Thus, do not file this form if you are a U.S. citizen or national, or if you have been lawfully admitted for permanent residence or U.S. employment.

To obtain an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card. To get Form SS-5 or to find out if you are eligible to obtain an SSN, contact a Social Security Administration office. If you have an application for an SSN pending, do not file Form W-7. However, you may file Form W-7 if the Social Security Administration notifies you that an SSN cannot be issued.

How To Apply

First complete Form W-7. Then, you can apply either by mail or in person. See Where To File on page 4. Be sure to mail or bring with you the original or certified copies of documents that substantiate the information on the Form W-7.

Examples of acceptable documents include an original passport, driver's license, birth certificate, identity card, or U.S. immigration documents. You can submit a copy of an original document, but it must be certified by the issuing agency or by a person legally authorized to certify that the document is a true copy of the original.

When To File

File this form as soon as you meet one of the requirements listed under Who Must File on this page. By filing Form W-7 early, it will allow the IRS time to issue you an ITIN before its required use.

If you have not heard from the IRS regarding your ITIN application within 14 days after you filed Form W-7, you may call 215-516-ITIN (215-516-4846) to find out the status of your application. This is not a toll-free number. Be sure to have a copy of your Form W-7 application available when you call. Please allow 14 days from the date you filed Form W-7 before calling the IRS about the status of your application.

Where To File

Applying in person.—You can apply for an ITIN at most IRS offices and certain U.S. consular offices abroad. Contact the IRS or U.S. consular office for your area to find out if that office accepts Form W-7 applications. If so, you can apply for an ITIN by presenting the Form W-7 along with the proper documentation to that IRS or U.S. consular office.

You may also apply through an acceptance agent. In general, an acceptance agent is a financial institution, educational organization, Federal agency, or any other person authorized by the IRS to act as an applicant's agent.

Applying by mail.—Complete Form W-7, sign and date it, and mail the form along with the original or certified copies of your documentation to:

Internal Revenue Service
Philadelphia Service Center
ITIN Unit
P.O. Box 447
Bensalem, PA 19020

Original documents will be returned after the application is processed.
